Dear Mr. McCaskey,

Thank you for your steady support of NFIB's Political Action Committees (PACs) and your recent contribution of $50.

Your contribution is an investment in the small business community and strengthens our voice on legislation that directly impacts your livelihood as a small business owner.

This past month NFIB's political teams saw a victory in Louisiana's special election for the 5th Congressional district. NFIB FedPAC endorsed candidate Julia Letlow won outright in the special election! Your generosity funds political efforts that assist candidates and members, like Julia, in Congress who will stand up for the small business community's interests and helps NFIB educate and mobilize small business voters across the country.

Thank you again for your recent contribution. Your continued support helps NFIB be a leader in supporting political candidates and members of Congress who advocate for Main Street America.

Sincerely,
