Dear Mr. McCaskey,

First of all, I'm going to start off by saying you have absolutely have no idea how indebted I feel to you. Over the stressful and eventful months of August and September it was your contribution and commitment to me and my project that frankly allowed it to happen. For that I am very very grateful. This Eagle Scout rank means so much to me and you've helped me achieve the goal of it that I've had since the first grade as a Tiger scout.

Just as a start, the expert advice you gave me throughout the planning and building processes helped immensely not only to allow me to direct all of my helpers but also to explain to the church exactly what is being done for the project and any problems and resolutions we had come across.

Secondly, the donation of the materials itself was enough in itself to greatly impact the dynamics and speed of the project and without that donation I would have had to do much more work to get the materials at the right price let alone the money for them.

Lastly, and most importantly your donation of time was absolutely invaluable when it comes to the amount of help it gave me. Bringing out the excavator and clearing out the rocks and stumps allowed me to begin building much quicker than expected and allowed for a more seamless operation when it came down to finishing the project. If you ask me, if you wouldn't have done that clearing for me, I would probably still be working on digging up one of those stumps. I can name you single handedly for allowing my project to be finished.

Overall I'd like to complement you, Mr. McCaskey as a very kind and giving man and you have shown me the meaning of selflessness. It is for people like you that us scouts like to identify as people that represent and embrace the meaning of community. That is actually the motive behind our Eagle Scout projects; They are meant to serve as a way to give back to the people and community that raised us to be the outstanding young men we will or have become. You serve as a role model for myself and you have my deepest respect.

Thank you for all that you have done for me.
